STEPS

Change comes through life in steps. Every happening, no matter how small or great, leads to a step. The step may be in any direction, toward love or hate, toward progression or regression, toward maturity or immaturity.

This year seems to be one in which steps are to be taken. the most obvious ones are graduation and changes in school policies. In keeping with this idea we hope that this Watanyah is a step in which the true spirit of West Rome High School can be seen.

May it be our most sincere prayer that the steps taken this year and in the future will be in the right direction. May they lead us to maturity, peace, and brotherhood.

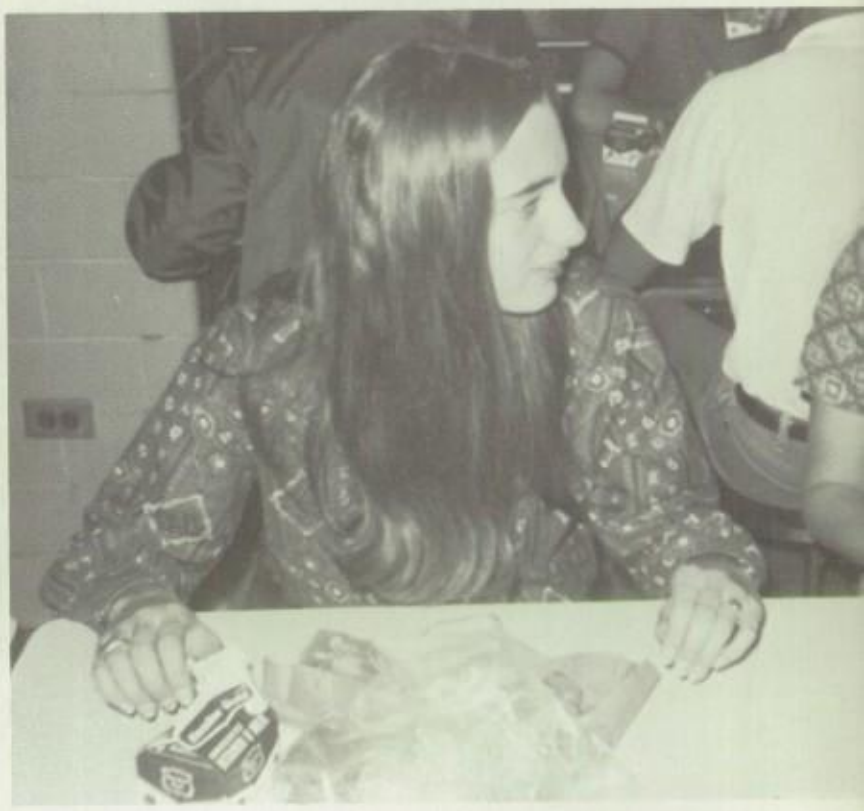
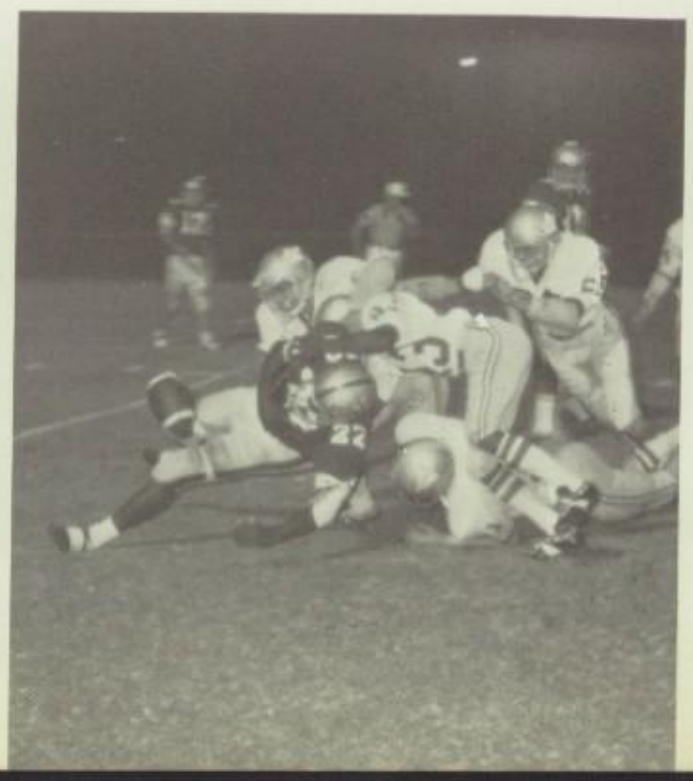
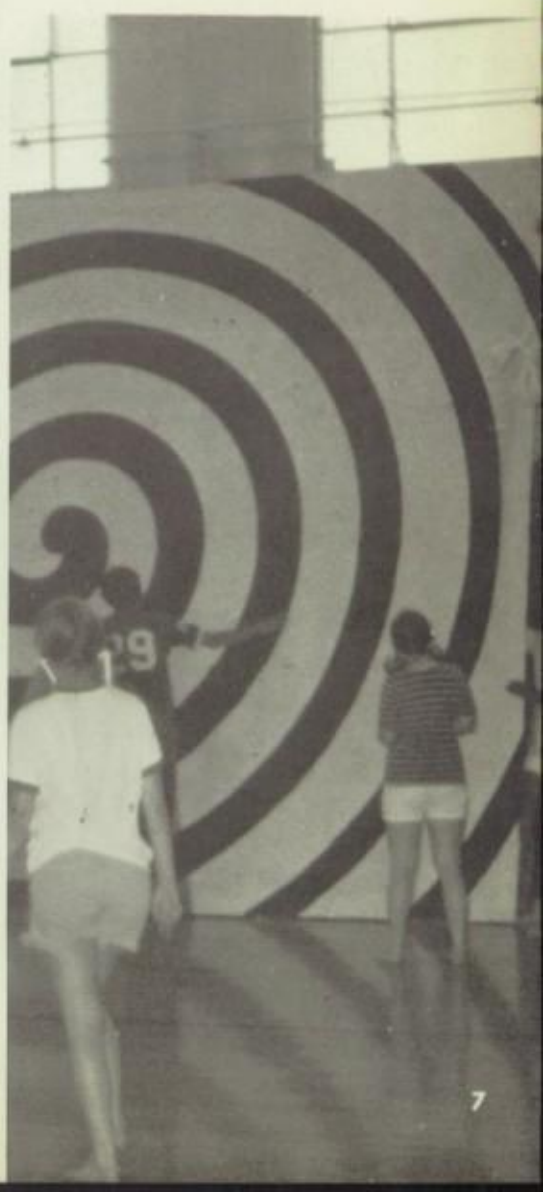
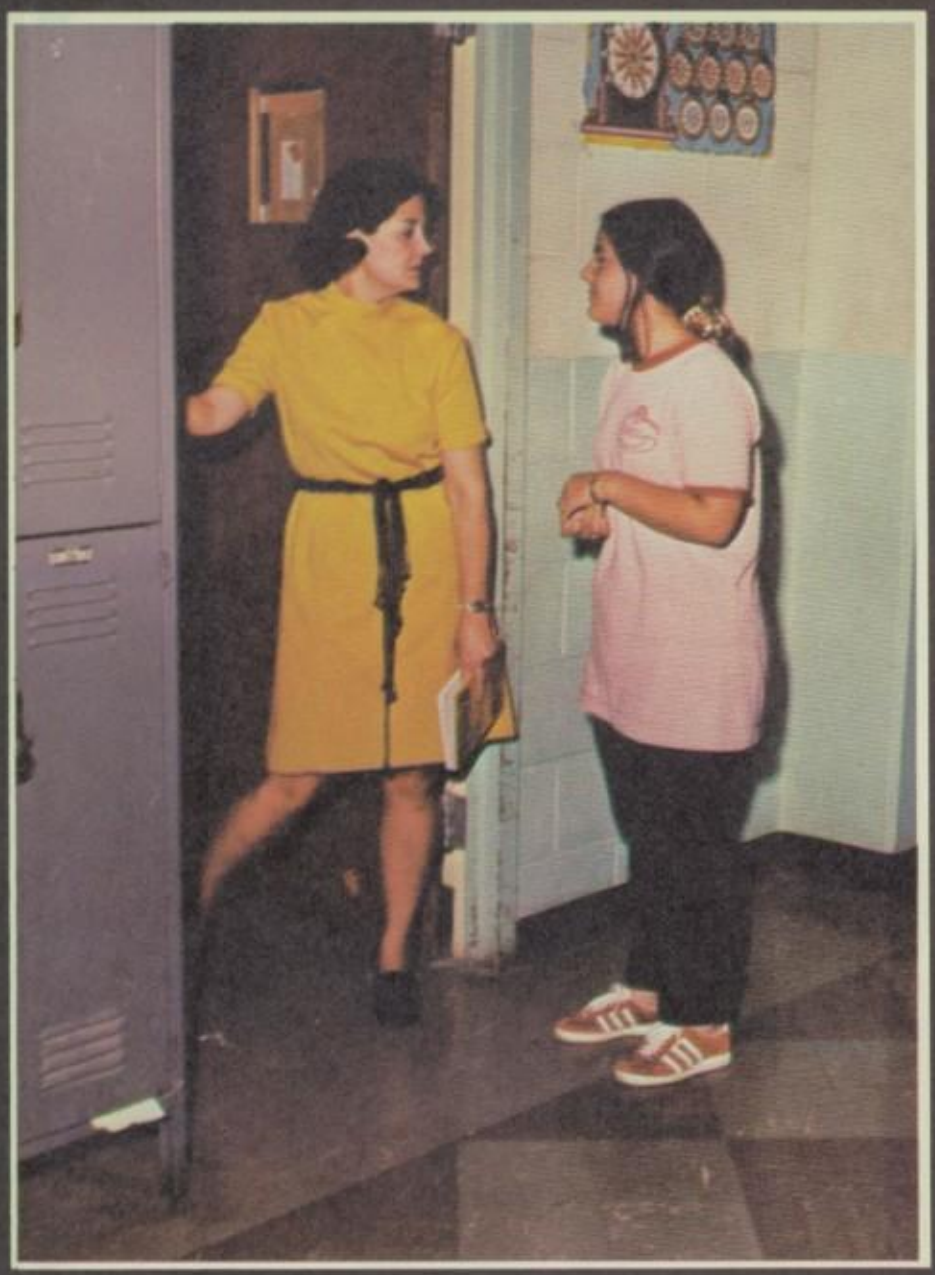
BOYS









Because of your willingness to help both the students and the school, your eagerness to help anyone and everyone, your ability to communicate well with your students, and your wholehearted devotion to West Rome, we, the 1972 Watanyah Staff, dedicate our annual to you, MRS. ANA MARIA ARMONA.

"It is a Sin to remain silent when there is a need to PROTEST!"

"We Started Out as Two."

FOR VICTORY

THE CLASS POEM

We started out as two
All scared and frightened
Not knowing what to do.

And then on the steps of Life we climbed.
We climbed together as one —
And that's when we started to get things done.

We stop — We look back — We think — We see.
And then we wonder
What our quest will be.

We remember the laughter, the tears, the joy!
And our first date
With that special girl or boy.

The football games, class rings.
And then seniors at last:
But then we realize all this has passed.

Our memories will wither away
But through it all West Rome will stay.
Our hope still goes on
Our faith lies within
And our Love remains forever.

We go our separate ways
To no longer be as one
And then we realize
"We've Only Just Begun!"

by Wanda Breeden

THE CLASS SONG

I'D LIKE TO TEACH THE WORLD TO SING

I'd like to build the world a home,
And furnish it with love.
Grow apple trees, and honey bees,
And snow white turtle doves.

I'd like to teach the world to sing,
In perfect harmony.
I'd like to hold it in my arms;
and keep it company.

I'd like to see the world for once,
All standing hand in hand.
And hear them echo through the hills,
Oh, Peace throughout the land.

I, Doris Sprayberry, just being, leave to B. P. the will to survive; to G. A. a fence to back into; to C. N. a pair of Pj's; to D. W. a "cold duck"; to Mrs. Cox, W.R.J.H. and Coach Blanton a big THANK YOU. Now with many great memories (and for longer than "three days"), I leave.

I, Eric Stuenkel, being of short mind and long body, bequeath to B. N. a jug of juici, to K. S. a pair of socks; to N. H. the pine trees; to H. K. W. a great senior year; and to M. R. R. a deck of cards and an alarm clock that only works at 9 A.M.

I, Debbie Thomson, being somewhat, do hereby leave to E. and J. true happiness and the ability to realize what they have; to future Chieftains, the ability and energy to make WR great; to Mr. McPhee and Mr. Finley the ability to care. To my teachers, THANKS. To humanity hope.

I, Ken Toles, being of small body and dilapidated mind do hereby leave J. F. a key to the prison gate, now I finally leave at last.

I, Bobby Twilley, being of lazy mind and body do hereby leave to J. P. a football player; to D. W. a bottle of Cold Duck; to Mrs. Green another English scholar; to G. T. a date with S. M., to E. P. someone to "wearout." And Finally I Leave For Florida. (The Kid)

I, Jane Upshaw, being of marched out mind and bod leave, Daddy Shook, a recording "Run It Again," W. R. and E. H., something funny, to P. A. the title of my sister-in-law, to my Coosa fans, a "trip" to the "Sewing Circle," Now I leave to catch up with the "White Bird."

I, Alan Ware, with Atlas bod and zero mind, leave Mr. F., relief; I was always the only one to make fun of him; the faculty — 11 more years of Wares (all girls though). Now I go Quietly — no one wants anything of mine anyway. Love and BYE!!

I, Alicia Welchel, leave to D. W. a "baker," K. B. a "crowe," J. P. my friendship, K. P. a "friend," D. G. a bottle of "my malt duck!" S. T. "Reid," D. G. somebody to hold hands with!, G.A. a "sot," and to A. R., B. H., and C. A. good luck! Now I leave never to return!

I, Fred Whitlock, leave to G. A. someone to cuss out; to W. N. and D. B. someone else to preach to; to my brother a good car; to the underclassmen the keys to their cells. Now I leave for Florida with no regrets.

I, Jan Whittenburg, just being here, leave a big "Thanks" to my parents for opening my life. To Leila, I leave a successful trip to Berry Academy (some day). To Wana A. I leave an "examination." Now, last of the Whittenburg's I leave . . . I leave . . . at last I . . . LEAVE!!!

I, Dave Wilson, being 100% ugly, I leave M. A. a correct weather report, T. A. a broken knee, D. W. and J. G. a ride to school, J. S. a can of hair spray. I leave to Mrs. T. and Coach H. another Wilson to do all of their homework. Finally I leave.

I, Steve Woodall, being of genious mind and fantastic body do hereby leave to my sister the ability to have to go to talk to J. N. F. to Mr. K. I leave a New Mo-bile Unit. To Coach P. and Coach J. I leave a winning P.E. class sixth period. To the Apples I leave anything they want.

I, Donald Wright, of not much body and no mind, leave N. W. a two year sentence, and to A. W. 5 to 6 years. To M. M. I leave You, By Yourself! Last but not least I leave to everyone Finley-Za — goodby.

I, Greg Young, leave my tremendous Athletic Ability to R. H.; The blame on Mr. Kilgore for producing another future History Teacher; and a great love for the "Greatest" school ever, West Rome, in which I as a transfer student spent two of the "Happiest" years of my life!

Carol Evans

Class History

Martin Rollinson

No longer "Big Shots" of the junior high we soon became senior bait in the fall of '68. Through the guidance of Sam Davenport, Carol Evans, Terry Culberson, and Lee Dempsey we strove to establish ourselves in this "Institution of Higher Learning." We proved ourselves through a winning season in J.V. Football under the leadership of David Fox, and by harnessing our enthusiasm into spirit helped the school in a 14-6 victory over the East. Freshman enthusiasm was seen elsewhere, as the band received a first division rating in both the Chattanooga Marching Festival and the Seventh District Band Festival for concert bands. For the year our class favorites were Carol Evans and Sam Davenport. We ended our first year with a dance, "Time of the Season."

As "wise fools" we entered our second year and discovered that this "Institution of Higher Learning" wasn't everything it was "cracked up to be." The senior honor society proved that they could also be "wise fools" by inducting Martin Rollinson, Virginia Leiter, Joyce Gribble, David Whitworth, Jody Laseter, and Ana Armona in their first year of eligibility. Virginia Leiter carried the academic torch higher by participating in the Governor's Honors Program in French. This year, disappointing to many students was the retirement of Mrs. Brewer. But students heard for the first time the now familiar "Gimme your attention please" as only Mr. Finley can deliver it, when he became the Assistant Principal. The Lab Band, initiated during our freshman year, got into full swing by receiving the second highest score given at Austin Peay, a Mid-South jazz festival, and a first division rating at Barnesville. Both the Marching Band and Concert Band received first division ratings at the Governor's Marching Festival and Seventh District Band Festival, respectively. During this year the Governor authorized the Chieftain Color Guard to be the six flag bearers of the state. Mimi Payne, Deborah Helms, and Jane Upshaw were three members of this elite group.

On the sports scene David Love held the position of quarterback, through a hard-fought but disappointing 5-4-1 season. Especially disappointing not only for our class but also for the entire student body was the loss in the East-West battle. However, the athletic department came back by winning the H. C. Brewer award based on all major athletic events. Basketball spirit was promoted with the aid of Susi Trippe, Marsha Lee, and Janet DeDeurwaerder as part of the cheerleading squad. Leadership in our class became the responsibility of Sharon Franklin, Carol Evans, David Fox, and David Love as they were elected our class officers. New inductees of the Key Club were David Fox, David Love, Dennis Conway, Jimmy Ellison, and Vince DiLorenzo. We exhibited our effectiveness as Ginger Parker maintained the treasurer post in the Student Council. Chosen as our favorites for the year, were David Fox and Carol Evans. Ending with a fabulous dance "Psychedelic Shack," we plunged into a long-awaited vacation.

Returning from a summer of rest and recuperation we elected to preside during our most important academic year, the junior year, Carol Evans, Mike Harrell, Jane Edwards, and Thomas Crowley. Jeane Ward and David Love captured popularity honors by becoming our class favorites. New junior cheerleaders, Marsha Lee, Susi Trippe, and Jody Laseter, experienced one of the most exciting football seasons in the history of West Rome. Coach Hyder's platoon system proved to be explosive as the Chieftains erupted with a 10-0 season chalking up a humiliating victory over Pepperell (51-0) and E.R. (23-0). The Chieftains ended this perfect season by once again defeating the LaFayette Ramblers and claiming the Region Championship. Girls' basketball also had an outstanding season. Spurred on by junior cheerleader, Loretta Kennemore, we claimed the Region Championship. The band repeating last year's success of first division ratings in Lab Concert and Marching Band felt the leadership of more of our class as Mimi Payne was selected Drum Majorette, Laura Aldridge and Jane Upshaw began twirling batons, Deborah Helms became a gun bearer and Sharon Franklin was selected as Chaplain. Another outstanding performance by the now broken-in (a few more or less, gray hairs) Mr. Shook led the band to greater heights of achievements as he entered the Concert Band in the highest level of competition and received the first division rating. Vicki Gordon continued class participation in the Student Council by becoming secretary. Lindy O'Brien, Dave Wilson, Jimmy Jones, Eric Stuenkel, Ginger Parker, Joe Godfrey, and Mike Harrell were inducted into the honor society. Another academic achievement was accomplished by David Whitworth as he attended the Governor's Honor Program participating in Drama. Tom Crawford and Martin Rollinson earned luncheon privileges by election into the Key Club. In the Powder Puff football game, promoted by the Key Club, the juniors proved once and for all the superiority of our class as they pinned the seniors with a quarterback sneak winning 13-7. Always a junior highlight, our rings finally arrived. In our modest opinion the Junior-Senior was the BEST EVER. "We've Only Just Begun," the dance, was worked on by the whole class, but special credit must be placed on the hard-working backs of our president, Carol Evans, Alan Ware who designed the plans, Kent Martin and Jane Coker who drew the murals, and Jane Edwards (persistent worker and responsible for the life-saving help of the Murphys). Ending a fast paced junior year, Student Council campaigns and elections injected a fresh break from the hum-drum of our "institution" as Carol Evans was elected vice-president and Mike Harrell became an able president.

The senior year (OUR FINAL, THIS IS IT, OVER THE HILL, THE END) began early for marching seniors and section leaders Joe Godfrey, Nancy Malone, Eric Stuenkel and Martin Rollinson. With the aid of the band officers Virginia Leiter, captain, and lieutenants Deborah Helms and Judy Johns plus the ever-present Mimi Payne, we instructed the new freshmen (now we had come to be the other end of the pole and they were the bait) in marching techniques. For "eggciting" adventure the marching band proved the work put in by capturing a first division rating at the Governor's Marching Festival and by not only placing first in their division at the Peach Bowl but also by finishing an extremely close second overall. The Tullahoma Jazz Festival gave the Lab Band an opportunity to spread its feathers as they placed third out of the twenty-three bands entered. A challenge met by the marching band (due to lack of consideration by the football team) was the performance at the halftime of 13 football games. Coach Hyder's two-platoon system once again flushed the opponents with another 10-0 season. The Chieftains went on to capture the region championship under the guidance of David Fox as offensive captain, Vince DiLorenzo as defensive captain, and Thomas Crowley, the team captain. Cheering the team on to their victorious season were Marsha Lee, Jody Laseter, Susi Trippe, and Loretta Kennemore, the senior members of the cheerleading squad. As the result of student protest both football and basketball cheerleading squads underwent major surgery by the end of a week of arbitration at the superintendent's office. A bi-racial committee discussed the problems of black representation on the squads and developed a plan based on student ratio which when ratified by secret ballot ended a three-day boycott of the school by a majority of the black students. Senior members of the basketball cheerleading squad were Gretchen Roberson, Jean Roberson, and Nannita Jones. Other leaders in the class were the officers, Jane Edwards, Deborah Moses, Lisa Copeland, Thomas Crowley, and Wanda Breeden. Favorites were Jeane Ward and Carol Evans sharing David Love. Senior Superlatives for the year were; Best All Around, Carol Evans and Wayne Johnson; Most Athletic, Kitty Mercer and Thomas Crowley; Most Likely To Succeed, Joyce Gribble and Martin Rollinson; Cutest, Gretchen Roberson and Tommy Parker; Best Spirit, Angela Reid and Dave Wilson; Best Looking, Lisa Copeland and David Fox; Wittiest, Terry Culberson and Alan Ware; Most Dependable, Jane Edwards and Mike Harrell; Most Talented, Traci Baker and Kent Martin; Best Personality, Jeane Ward and Kenny McEver; Best Dressed, Jenny Fricks and Bubba Dunwoody; Most Original, Wendy Evans and Scott Greene; and Friendliest, Betty Ferguson and Bobby Twilley. The highest honor the school can bestow went to Jody Laseter and Mike Harrell as they were elected Mr. and Miss W.R.H.S. Outstanding seniors were presented at the LaFayette game as Mimi Payne was crowned Homecoming Queen escorted by Tommy Parker. Her court consisted of Lisa Copeland escorted by Jimmy Johnson, Ginger Parker escorted by Mike Harrell, Bobby Twilley accompanying Doris Sprayberry, Vicki Fielder with Harold Morgan, Kirk McConnell escorting Deborah Moses, and Jenny Fricks escorted by Bubba Dunwoody. At the Christmas Dance, "Winter Wonderland," Jane Edwards was selected as Queen with court of Gretchen Roberson and Denise Oyler. Another senior, Joyce Gribble, accomplished the possible by putting out this year's edition of the WATANYAH, while Lindy O'Brien and Debbie Thompson were senior editors of the DRUMBEAT. Other senior girls were exhibited as Jane Edwards, Lisa Copeland, Jenny Fricks, Vicki Gordon, Virginia Ellison, Gretchen Roberson, Joyce Gribble, Ginger Parker, Deborah Moses, and Cynthia Aldrige were elected Key Club sponsors while Darrell McGinnis became president and Scott Greene was added to the club. Overcoming male chauvinism another outstanding senior, Virginia Leiter, became the Star Student. the honor society piloted by Rittenhouse added Kim Hawley and John Jeffries as new senior members. Meanwhile, our academic year seemed to pass faster than any previous year as we concluded the twelfth rung in the scholastic ladder of the "institution" of Higher Learning.

Looking back, we realize that the last four years have been the best ever. Modesty is a virtue, but whenever the class of '72 is examined, superlatives must be used. Finally, to have accomplished what we have accomplished (namely graduation) it must always be remembered that WE'RE THE CLASS THAT SEES THINGS THROUGH, WEST ROME'S CLASS OF'72.

The Football Cheerleaders — Leading Cheers,

JODY LASETER, Senior
Captain

The Football Cheerleaders did a fine job leading the student body during the '71 season. They not only promoted spirit for football games, but also spirit throughout the school.

They taught many new cheers and techniques which they learned at summer camp. While there, they won 3 superior and 1 excellent ribbons.

All the hard work, and planning done by the squad along with the complete cooperation of the student body, made the spirit rise to an all time high at W.R.H.S.

JEANE WARD, Sr.

Jeane Ward, a three-year letterman, has capably served the Chieftain team as captain in her senior year. Her strong playing as forward has added to the great spirit of the team.

Wanda Owens as co-captain, has greatly inspired her teammates to Chieftain victory many times. Her great ability as a guard has been a credit to the team and a main factor in many ball games.

Basketball Cheerleaders

KAREN BARNETT, Junior
Captain

The basketball Cheerleaders under the direction of Karen Barnett, Captain, and Jean Roberson, Co-Captain, worked very hard to promote spirit among the students. They cheered at the games and held pep rallies before each game. At cheerleading camp during the summer, they won 2 excellent and 2 outstanding ribbons.

These cheerleaders have really given their best to help the squads win.

New uniforms are not the only things West Rome's Band has to be proud of. In the past year, the band has moved up to Class A in concert and marching, earning superior ratings in both. The lab band has also been busy, representing Georgia at the Tullahoma Jazz Festival in Tennessee and placing third. Individual band members who have received honors are Mimi Payne and Stanley Smith, superior ratings in drum major; Judy Johns and Jackie Beard, All-Star Stage Band; Virginia Leiter and Deborah Helms, All-State Orchestra and Band.

Peach Bowl

The band's second trip to the Peach Bowl was a great success. During the three days of festivities the band competed in a National Marching Contest, winning first in their division and first runner-up overall. The majorettes and drum majors also took firsts and the color guard placed second. Other activities included a parade, concerts, and a very wet pre-game show.

Student Council Organizes New Lunch Periods

A smoking lounge, the Christmas program and Homecoming are just a few of the outstanding activities the council has presented to the school throughout this year.

The Student Council serves as the voice of the students and succeeds in solving many problems put into their responsibility.

Student Council is also an important factor in boosting school spirit for the athletic events and to perform many services for the improvement of the school building.

This group is our most recognized and most respected club at West Rome High School.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is established to promote scholarship, leadership, character, and service in the individual student. Students from grades 10, 11, and 12 are chosen by teachers on the basis of their character, scholarship, leadership, citizenship, and service toward the school. A 4.25 average is required for eligibility.

While succeeding in these characteristics, this year the Honor Society also succeeded in promoting a great deal of spirit and excitement in the school. These students organized a contest for the "Ugliest Man on Campus." The winner of this contest collected the highest amount of money, which was to go to a scholarship fund for the Honor Society. The winner of the contest was Martin Rollinson.

Stand proudly and with grateful hearts
our alma mater praise

Show forth her glory and her fame;
her banner upward raise.

To green and white we pledge our love;
your honor we proclaim.

We shall be faithful unto your trust,
and to the Chieftain name.

And when today has run its course,
and new tomorrows come,

We leave our hearts and memories here,

Shirley,
I found you to be very nice, sweet, and cute. You always kept a smile you never had a frown. May you find out life holds for you. And when you find that right young man. I know that I will enjoy their company you. I know that I have enjoyed have English, Algebra, & Chemistry together. Keep that Smile

Love ya!
